

i made a pledge today to keep k-love on the air. i can honestly say this is a radio station like no other. even other christian stations don't compare with k-love. i love the fact it's listener supportive. which puts the listeners in control not whomever is advertising. it also makes me feel more connected with the nation knowing anyone from anywhere in the U.S. is hearing the same thing i am.

thank you